RAGGED SUNDAY SCHOOL IN SLUMS OF SHINKAWA, JAPAN

Friar Little Japanese Student Begins Great Work—Smallness of Dry Goods Bill of the Flower Kingdom Suggested by Crowds of Scantily-Clad Tots That Fill Little 'Chapel' on Sunday Afternoon—All Japan, Young or Old, Loves a Flower—Millions Are Calling for Light—Brazilians Eager for Gospel—Results of American Missions in Egypt, Persia and Turkey—An Appreciated Gift—Bequest of 250,000 for Mission Work in Africa.

By SOUTHERN MISSIONARY NEWS BUREAU

Ida Clyde Clarke, Editor

SOME STRIKING FIGURES

In the United States there is one ordained minister for every 546 persons. In the whole non-Christian world there is only one for every 275,000.

In non-Christian countries there is but one medical missionary to every 2,500,000. In the United States there are 4,000 physicians to the same number.

Missionaries, including physicians and doctors as well as preachers, average a greater number of converts each than do preachers at home. This in spite of the fact that the difficulties are incomparably greater in the mission field and that much of the work is seed-sowing.

Last year an average of 400 souls per day were brought into Christianity out of heathenism. This is an average of 2,800 added every week.

It has been carefully estimated that one missionary, with the native force which he can train, can evangelize 25,000 within a generation. There are 27,000 such districts of 25,000 people each, which need a missionary.

To put one worker in each district of 25,000 of the 600 millions (America's share in world evangelization) only one out of 800 church members is needed.

In the Civil War Georgia sent into the army 1 out of 5.5 white population; South Carolina 1 to 4.8; Florida 1 in 4.8; Louisiana 1 in 3.7; and North Carolina sent out 10,000 more than the total number of voters.

It took modern missions 100 years to win the first million converts out of heathenism. The next million was won in 12 years. The next million in six years. The day is coming when we will win millions every year if we measure up to our God-given opportunities.

In China in 1842 after the first thirty-years of missionary work, there were only 6 converts; in 1860, 960; in 1877 there were 18,000; in 1890, 37,500; in 1896, 101,000. Conservative figures now place the number at 850,000.

Down in the slums of a great city there is a "ragged Sunday school" that is doing a magnificent work. It was started several years ago by Kagawa San, a frail, girlish-looking Japanese theological student who threw himself heart and soul into the work. He lives in two rooms in one of the most degraded and squalid sections of Shinkawa, his home city. One room he uses as a "charity hospital" and the other serves as a bedroom, study, kitchen, dining room, guest room or chapel and the need requires.

How the hearts of many Christians would be stirred to a more consecrated service for the Master if they could look in on some of the scenes enacted in that tiny back room in the slums of Japan. The "chapel" is open every Sunday afternoon for the Sunday school and every night in the week for services of some kind.

Miss Nellie Bennett, writing to her home board, tells a pretty story of this Sunday school and its founder. She says:

"The police heartily approved of Kagawa San's work, as it has so improved the conditions in that section. The street language they say is greatly improved and the children, whose highest ambitions are generally to be street beggars or garbage men, are being brought to realize the real worth of life.

"Kagawa San lives with his people and he calls himself 'The Apostle of one clothes,' by which he means to convey that he has only one kimono. I asked him once why it was necessary for him to live in that section and why he considered it necessary to limit his wardrobe to such an extent. His answer was that to work for the slums he must know the night life as well as the day life. His reasons for his limited wardrobe were interesting. He said that to gain the love and confidence of his people he must live like them. If he had "two clothes" he could keep it no longer than another's used was presented to him. If he undertook to keep anything in his room, his neighbor would steal it and sell it to rice or "sake" (drink) and he had no right to put temptation in his brother's way. So he owns nothing that he cannot always carry on his person."

Miss Bennett gives a graphic description of a children's day exercises in the little ragged Sunday school of Kagawa San.

"The hospital and study had been thrown into one for the occasion, and it was a hot July day. As many children as could be packed or squeezed into the tiny rooms were sitting Japanese fashion on the floor, and the narrow streets, both in front and in the rear of the house were crowded with men, women and children, all glad of some diversion in the dull routine of life of the eastern slum residents.

"Japan's 'dry goods' bill is nowhere large in summer, and Shinkawa was carrying the blue ribbon that day. Soap and water also seemed scarce. One of the workers, in order to quell a threatened uprising among some small boys, tactfully presented each one with a flower from a bunch she was carrying. Japan, young or old loves a flower, and at once a dozen grimy little hands were held out. One pathetic looking little girl with a baby on her back, though hardly more than an infant herself, gazed longingly at the flowers, but it was some time before she could overcome her shyness sufficiently to come near enough to take one. Finally her love for flowers prevailed and she grasped the coveted treasure.

Isn't this little story typical of the poor of the heathen lands, longing for the beautiful gospel flower, stretching out their hand for the treasure if we will only see?

Miss Bennett then tells of a visit Kagawa San recently made to one of the oldest sections of Kobe, where, in a population of 50,000 or more, there is no work being done at all. She says: "It is an old Buddhist stronghold; one of the three 'Daibutsu' great Buddhas, of Japan, is there. Will not some of God's children in America send money for us to buy a lot and put up a building for a Sunday school and kindergarten in that place, where 1000 years after Christ's ascension men have not yet heard of his great love and power to save?"

Millions Call for Light.
Rev. O. R. Janvier, in

address before a great convention of laymen, pointing to a gigantic map of the world, said:

"Begin on the west coast of Africa with what, on the old map, is still called the great desert of Sahara, but part of which we know to be teeming with millions who call to us for light. Pass right across North Africa to Turkey in Europe, then through Syria and Arabia and Persia, across Afghanistan and India, Siam and Tonquin, China, Korea and Japan. If you had looked that way a few years ago what would you have seen? A great chain of sleeping nations, sleeping the sleep of death, full of sluggishness and hopelessness resting over them all, a lethargy such as no one can know except those who have come in contact with it—no public life, no public spirit, no public institutions, no deep feeling on any subject—one sweep of deadly indifference from east to west and west to east."

DEATH CLAIMS A FAIR, YOUNG FLOWER

Lucile Holt, so Well Known and Loved in Earlinton—Called Home

Miss Lucile Holt, daughter of Mr. T. E. Holt, died Saturday evening at 10:30 o'clock at her home in Warrensburg, Mo., after a few short months illness of tuberculosis.

The message containing the news of her death received by relatives Saturday afternoon came as a great shock, although not unexpected, as her condition had been thought serious for several weeks. It had been Lucile's custom for several years to spend the winters with her grandmother, Mrs. S. A. Cordier, and her visits were looked forward to with an immense amount of pleasure by those who grew to love this charming girl and those who loved her were numbered by those she met. It was realized by the family and her many friends when she left Earlinton in early Spring that her health was broken and hardly due to hope for her return for this winter's visit, although, in her usual bright and sunny manner she assured them all she would return in the Autumn.

Lucile was twenty years of age and a member of the Christian church. She was laid to rest at the Warrensburg Cemetery Monday afternoon. As a token of love for this fair young creature, plucked in the prime of life and of sympathy to the family, in this their great loss of one so worthy of their loving care, a great number of her friends joined in sending a floral design representing "Gito Ajar" which in a very small way expresses the real grief for the loss of one so deeply loved and admired for her faithfulness and never wavering duty to those she loved.

She leaves a father and step-mother and one half sister and half brother to mourn the loss of one they had learned to claim as their very own.

Store Robbed at Nortonville

The quality store lately established at Nortonville, and owned by J. E. Goldstein, was robbed late Saturday night by a thin clad stranger who needed more clothes.

A negro man who was sleeping over the store heard the noise and intercepted the thief as he was leaving. He was turned over to Marshal Woodward and brought to Madisonville, where he was placed in jail. The stranger gave his name as Will

ELECTION PASSED OFF QUIETLY

Democrats Elect Entire County Ticket by Handsome Majority

ROM SALMON WINS EASILY

The election here passed off quietly, there was a heavy vote polled in all precincts. The Citizens ticket headed by W. E. Rash for mayor, was elected, by a safe majority. Jim Candler republican was elected over Judge Bennett democrat, for police judge. At a late hour tonight indications are that Senator Rom Salmon was elected over his republican opponent Lat McLaughlin by over 800 votes and that the democrats have elected their entire county ticket. Nolle Umstead republican nominee for representative received a handsome complimentary vote in this city.

Ghost Party By The Ten.

Friday night being Halloween, a time where ghosts, hobgoblins, and all manner of eerie faces are abroad in the land.

This is a time in the year, when these uncanny creatures hold high revels in the weird hours of the night. "The Ten?" bent on fun and frolic had sent out invitations to the young men to meet them in ghostly attire at the home of Mrs. Harriet Browning and from their room to the place where the frolic was to end, this being Oakmoor, some time was spent at this meeting place in an effort to find who was bid, under the masks, and then the procession wended through town, the leaders falling over gates, finally led the way to several prominent business places and residences till tired of their journey they wended their way to Oakmoor, where they were led into the cellar and up the back stairs in the dark, two rooms on the second floor, where they unmasked. During the evening fortunes were told, contests engaged in and pranks played that were in keeping with the spirit of the occasion.

An attractive arrangement of yellow and white, the club colors, a large pumpkin Jack-o'-lantern, popcorn balls, red and white stick candy, placed in log pen style, with places favors of witches, was used in the effective decorations of the dining room table.

The tooth some refreshments consisted of fruit, salad, nut and pickle sandwiches, olives, pickles and coffee after which the fun was resumed and continued till eleven thirty, when the young ladies gave the young men a good night kiss and each reluctantly departed hoping to meet again next Halloween.

Miss Katherine Howard, was guest of the club, others present were Mrs. Jennie Moore, Paul M. Moore, Mesdames Harriet Browning and Stella M. Kemp, chaperones.

Card Club Reorganizes.

The Earlinton Bridge Club, held its first meeting of the season, with Mrs. W. H. Kline, on last Friday afternoon, Oct. 31st, from two to five o'clock. Quite a number of the old members were present, resulting in a most interesting meeting.

Miss Zilpha Moorehead, was an attractive guest. Mrs. Geo. Atkinson's score was the highest. Just before departing, the guests were served with an appetizing salad course.

The members of the Margaret's Guild meets Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. H. Kline.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Fish have as their guests the latter parents Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Motes of Nashville.

NO TAVERN AT MANNINGTON.

Application for License Withdrawn by J. R. Harris Through his Attorney.

OAK HILL FIGHT ON.

When the application of J. R. Harris, for tavern license to sell liquor at Mannington was reached on the docket of the county court Monday, Judge Yost, his attorney, stated to the court that, acting upon the decision of his client, the application would not be made. Harris was not present and the exact cause of his change of mind is not known, though it is surmised that he did not wish to come in contact with certain officers who are reported to have papers to serve on him. In the matter of the application of Harrelson & Henderson for quart license near Oak Hill, a protest was made against the issuance of the license and Judge Bradley proceeded to lay off a boundary in which the sense of the legal voters will be taken by petition and remonstrance, the boundary being as follows:

Beginning at the crossing of the Greenville and Princeton dirt road and the Madisonville and Hopkinsville road near the L. & N., running northerly parallel with the L. & N. to Oak Hill Dummy station; thence with old Oak Hill tramway line, easterly to Mrs. Merrill's line; thence on line between Mrs. Merrill's and Ashley Holloman's to the Madisonville and Greenville road, excluding all parties on the northern side of said tramway and line; thence with said Madisonville and Greenville road south, excluding all parties on east side of said road to its intersection with Greenville and Princeton road; thence in a westerly direction to the beginning, excluding all parties south of said road.

Judge Bradley fixed next Saturday as the day for hearing the case finally on the petition and remonstrance.

A hot fight on the question is expected. The boundary understood to be just what the applicants wanted and the "dry's" claim that it is not a fair or reasonable boundary.

County Attorney Sypert excepted to the boundary as being not a reasonable boundary.

Cap Shower.

At the home of Mrs. L. V. Renfro, Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Renfro and Mrs. Cloyd, gave a Cap Shower, for the bazaar, in Dec. Nearly fifty guests were present, each bringing a fancy or a useful cap, including doll, baby, pretty bon-bon and dust caps, they were effectively hung on lines of ribbon stretched across the parlor so all could see and admire, games and a contest were provided for entertainment and Mrs. John Long sweetly sang a sacred song.

A delicious salad course was served, thus ending another of these delightful showers. Bro. Brazelton, was a guest, his offering being a minors cap, one of his unique ideas.

INTEREST LIVENING UP AT THE METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Classes all reported busy building up ranks for winter's work.

The Sunday School of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, shows steadily improving attendance and growing interest, now that the cool weather has come and the workers are getting down to the season's task before them. There were 220 present last Sunday and the promise is for even a greater number during the remaining Sundays of the year. All classes are active, interesting members who have not been in regular attendance during the summer months and enrolling many new members.
There are two or three interesting contests just starting. Every officer and teacher present
the past few Sundays and last Sunday
the Bible Class almost pushed
the walls of their class room

A MESSAGE TO WOMEN

Who Are "Just Ready to Drop?"
When you are "just ready to drop,"
when you feel so weak that you can hardly drag yourself about—and because you have not slept well, you get up, as tired out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help.

Miss Lea Dumas writes from Madison, N. Y., saying: "I was in a badly run-down condition for several weeks but two bottles of Vinol put me on my feet again and made me
more good than all the other medicines I ever took."

If the careworn, run-down women,
the pale, sickly children and feeble
old folks around here would follow Miss Dumas' example, they, too, would soon be able to say that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron remedy,
had built them up and made them
strong."

It is a wonderful, strong creator and body-builder, and we sell it under a guarantee of satisfaction. You get your money back if Vinol does not help you.

P. S. For any skin trouble try our Salve. We guarantee it.

A HAPPY CHILD IN
JUST A FEW HOURS
When cross, constipated or if feverish,
give "California Syrup of Figs"
they don't worry

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs" because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless,
see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit-laxative."
Children love it, and it cannot cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold,
or a sore throat, diarrhoea,
stomach-ache, bad breath, remember,
a gentle "inside cleansing"
should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."
We make no smaller size.
Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

Worried Hero.
A critic of Wells' novel, "Marriage," finds in the confounding of the hero
the desire to have it all ways: to possess a woman who shall have all the charm and the caprice of the eternal feminine; who shall, by the grossness of her desires and the pettiness of conversation, give him an agreeable sense of superiority, and yet shall, to order, acquire deep spiritual insight when her husband feels he needs it."

Played to Good House.

Fawcett's Favorite Mixed Marshalls played at Mortons Gap Saturday night to a packed house. The parties composing this minstrel show were Misses Francis Elgin, Lucy Fawcett, Lelia Vaughan. Messrs. Free-
man Keizer, Shorty Kinchloe, Paul King and J. E. Fawcett, in-terlocenter. There were four reels of moving picture followed by songs, jokes and dancing. The people were generous with their applause and evidently enjoyed the entire show. Several jokes were pulled off on well known local people and were greatly enjoyed. This company will fill engagements at Sabree, St.
Charles, Gethrie and other places
in the near future.

WHY THE IDLE HOUR HAD

Repeaters Last Week.—An Explanation
Due to the Public.

On two nights last week there were six reels shown that were repeaters and the public are entitled to know the cause. The Central Film Company of Indianapolis,
who furnish the Uni-versal's service to the Idle Hour theatre had the misfortune to lose 191 of their reels in one shipment on the way to Evansville in a passenger wreck. This threw everything late and the Evansville distributing agent, Mr. H. E. Shaw, was forced to borrow some reels from the Mutual Film people at Evansville.
The ones sent to Earlington, were old reels that Walker had used here and consequently we used these repeaters in case of emergency.
This was of course unavoidable and will not likely be our again, as Mr. Shaw, assures he will have reels shipped from Louisville in case of another wreck.

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

By Timely Use of Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Here is her own statement.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me.

One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times.

My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around.

It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation.

I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman.

I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once

take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Practical Ventilating Hint.

The house should be ventilated in winter as well as in summer if the family is to be kept in good health.
Bedrooms, especially, should be provided with a free circulation of fresh air. One way to get fresh air in a bedroom without having a draft is to tack strips of cheesecloth across the top and the bottom of the window so that when it is opened in both places
the fresh air will enter the room and yet, should there be a strong wind,
its force will be broken by the cloth.

Improving Coffee Flavor.

Adding a pinch of salt and piece of butter, size of a bean, to coffee will make the flavor much better and also settle the coffee.

Just Before the Fight.

"So you are on your way to propose to Miss Pickle?" "You bet! Wish me luck!" "Oh, I wish you luck, all right; but it won't do you a bit of good; I feel sure she is going to accept
you."—Houston Post.

Richard Carle is well known as a comedian, but it is not so generally known that he is a clever librettist, composer and writer.

He adapted "Mary's Lamb" which will be seen at the Garrick Theater of Friday Nov 7th from a French farce called "Madame Mogodin".

Beside adapting the piece he also composed all the bewitching melodies and wrote all the librettos.

Dan McGrath the Anglo-American comedian, will be seen in the featured role of Leander Lamb when the musical comedy is seen here.

Mrs. Miles and son Harold, were in Madisonville Saturday.

Mrs. Alma Corbitt, of Madisonville, made a business trip to Earlington Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Kemp, spent Saturday afternoon in Madisonville shopping.

Mrs. Jeff Murphy, of Morgantown, spent Saturday in Earlington, visiting friends.

The demand for the music of "Mary's Lamb" which comes to the Garrick Theater on Friday night Nov 7th was so strong that the music publishing company which bought the publication right made a fortune aside from the one Richard Carle acquired by the three seasons run "Mary's Lamb".

Resolutions of Respect

Morton's Gap, Ky. Oct. 20, 1913.
To Honorable R. B. Bradley.
Madisonville, Ky.

Dear Sir:

Whereas; it is reported that application has been made to the County Judge of Hopkins County for a license to open an operate saloons at Oak Hill and Manganese, and,

Whereas, the opening of saloons in any part of the County, and especially where there is no police protection would eventually disturb the peace and quiet now extending in our County.

Therefore, Be it resolved this Colored representative of Morton's Gap, Ky., now in session assembled, that we petition Judge Bradley, to refuse, not only these applications, but any and all such petitions as may be hereafter presented to him.

Signed,
Frank O'Campbell, Chairman.

Halloween Party.

A number of congenial little friends enjoyed a Halloween party Friday evening with Miss Elizabeth Rash, as hostess at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rash.

The house was prettily decorated suitable to the occasion, many delightful games were played by the little folks and entered into with zest by all present, following the games, delicious refreshments of sherbert and cake was served, and all spent a jolly good time.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pope's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pope's" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pope's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation,

too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn

sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute,

and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.

HON. OLLIE JAMES

Speaks to Large Crowd Here Saturday Night

Ollie James the Big Senator from Kentucky spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience of Earlington Voters at the opera house on Saturday night.

He was introduced by Hon. Ruby Laffoon, of Madisonville, in a brief talk.

Senator James made an exceedingly interesting talk and reviewed the action of the present administration on the tariff questions, showing that this measure has been framed for the benefit of the great masses of the country and not the classes.

He made a stirring appeal to all Democrats to stand together in solid phalanx at the polls and support their nominees of their party.

Title of Pope.
It is uncertain when the title pope was first used. The earliest instance we can cite, is that of Heraclius, Patriarch of Alexandria, in 222. It is still the ordinary title of parish priests in the eastern Greek church. In the west, it continued for several centuries to be applied to bishops generally, but it was restricted to the Roman pontiff by Gregory VII. in a synod, held at Rome in 1073.

THE NEW FAMOUS STORE

WRECKERS OF HIGH PRICES

Hippel's Bldg., Next Door to Dunkerson's Grocery Madisonville, Kentucky

Greatest attack upon highest prices ever attempted this War Declared Sale.

Never before, never again,
biggest sale this city ever had.

Real Friend.
There is one friend who will never fail you while you have hands to move and a brain to plan. In your dreariest hours she will be your sweet refuge, and in times of prosperity she will guard you from "the pride which goeth before a fall." She will bring you long nights of restful sleep at the end of your busy days and when other friends grow careless or disdainful,
she will absorb you more and more.
Her name is Work, and neither the highest nor the lowest can be happy for long without her.

Many as One.
The value of one person's mind or one person's work is steadily diminishing; it is in the associate mind, the many hearts beating as one, that now move the world; and this is so well understood by women that they are rapidly learning what can be accomplished in economic, social and intellectual life by the power of an educated public opinion.

Making All Happy.
"What I deem an appropriate present
is a book, and that I must choose for myself," writes a correspondent of the London Chronicle. "To leave the selection to friends would be a catastrophe. Every year, therefore, in behalf of those generously minded
individuals who have kindly thoughts
toward me, I buy books for myself,
tell them, and get the money refunded.
And in the measure of monetary value
they remember me. I likewise remember them—in any article of their own choosing. And—oh, all happy!"

New York's Nickname.
Gotham is the name of a village in England whose inhabitants, according to ancient tradition, were noted for their unsophisticatedness and simplicity and hence were called, by way of ridicule, "the wise men of Gotham." English legends and rhymes refer to the wise men of Gotham, and Washington Irving, in Salmagundi, applied it as a nickname to New York because the inhabitants were such wiseacres.
The nickname has survived its original significance if it ever had any.

Definition.
"What is a vegetarian?" asked little Tommy of his cynical uncle, who replied: "A vegetarian, my boy, is a man who has forgotten that all flesh
is grass."—New York Evening Post

Too Formal.
"Are you on friendly terms with your neighbor in the apartments?"
"Well, no. She's rather formal.
Always sends her card when she wishes to borrow flour, and if she wants both flour and sugar she sends two cards."

Scene from "The Girl and The Stampede" at Temple Theatre, Wednesday night, Nov. 5.
